Let's go!

No matter where you are, now is the starting point.

Everyone takes a financial journey through life -- but we don't all start at the same place. You work hard to get from one point to the next, and progress is often unpredictable.

Prepare for life's unknowns by creating a map that points you in the right direction. When the unexpected throws you off course, you'll be ready. You've come too far to let yourself get lost along the way.

Let's go!

Starting Point

From the beginning, Cornerstone Financial Group (CFG) has been a game changer in creating a community of wealth. Founded in 1844, CFG, a New England Financial (NEF) firm, built a history of integrity and a loyal following of successful clients. In 1996, NEF became a MetLife company, further building on cornerstones of trust and ingenuity.

CFG

We're a premier provider of individual and corporate wealth services in the Midwest. We work with people who are searching for something more – more from their money, their relationships, their lives and their legacies.

Let CFG help chart your course so you can answer the bigger questions: Where am I going and why? How will I get there and what's the surest way? Throughout the process we educate you with various resources and leverage our intellectual capital.

Even financial professionals seek out CFG when they, too, are looking for something more. It's one reason why our employee retention rate is three times the industry average.

And it's our people, using the CFG process, who make the complex simple, the scattered organized, the uncharted defined and the unknown manageable. There's nothing more personal than helping you get to your point.

Instead of talking about what we do,
let's do something worth talking about.
